RocketFuel is redefining payments.

Because your business is unique, you shouldn't be confined to the one-size-fits all constrictions of the credit card companies. With crypto, you have the freedom to innovate.

RocketFuel puts you in the driver's seat with complete control over how your payments are processed. With an easy one-click interface that supports payments through bank transfers and 120+ cryptocurrencies; we push your business globally, giving your customers the freedom to choose how to pay. It's an innovative and effortless experience for you and your shoppers.

Do I need to buy equipment or software to use RocketFuel?

No, you don't have to purchase any additional equipment to accept crypto payments. RocketFuel easily integrates with your online store.

How easy is it for my customers to pay with crypto currency?

Shoppers can easily and instantly pay using more than 120+ different crypto currencies or ACH bank transfers.

How long does it take to receive payments?

Unlike other payment network solutions, RocketFuel guarantees settlements in your merchant account daily. You don't have to wait 2 or 3 days to see funds hit your account.

What about the FX conversion fees for international customers?

There are no conversion fees. You and your customers can enjoy a seamless cross-border shopping experience using local currencies. It's entirely your choice what type of currency you receive for settlements, regardless of your shopper's payment preferences.

It's money without borders!
